MEXICO

Rich in history, tradition, culture, and natural beauty,
Mexico invites you to lose yourself in any number of ways.

Mexico is vibrant, colorful, and unique, blessed with Native American heritage and a distinct Spanish flavor. Its varied terrain ranges from cactus-studded deserts to white-sand beaches, tropical rainforests to steep rocky canyons, and snow-capped volcanic peaks to bustling cities. You'll find it all in this proud nation, where the most notable feature of all is the warmth and hospitality of its people.

Much of Mexico's countryside remains unspoiled by development, and its cities display a unique style of architecture. Its rich history is reflected in ancient Mayan temples strewn across the jungles, ruins of Aztec civilizations, rural indigenous villages, Spanish colonial cities, silver-mining towns, and traditional seaports. Modern Mexico thrives along hundreds of miles of Pacific and Caribbean coastline, some of the most popular vacation real estate in the world.

Entry Requirements

All US citizens are required to present a valid passport. Travelers staying in Mexico for more than 72 hours need a Mexico tourist card, which is good for single entry up to 180 days, and which must be kept with you at all times when in Mexico; the cost (about USD-$20) is included in your plane fare.

Climate

Mexico's Pacific Coast is bathed in warm-to-hot weather; high temperatures hover at around 90°F with little variation between day and night, and seldom drop below 77°F. Along the Caribbean, temperatures are constant and rather warm throughout the year (with highs of 80°F).

- Pilot an ATV along well-maintained trails through grassland, jungle, and mangrove to an idyllic Caribbean beach.
- Revel in authentic Mexican food, music, and culture at Xoximilco's one-of-a-kind traditional Mexican Fiesta.
- Book a sportfishing excursion and cast for blue marlin, sailfish, tuna, mahi-mahi, barracuda, snapper, and mackerel.

A world-class vacation destination that lures you with fabulous resorts and friendly hospitality.

Seas that sparkle in every shade of emerald and turquoise draw visitors from all over the world to Cancún, the most visited vacation destination in Mexico. Gleaming white-sand beaches, spectacular sunsets, and fantastically preserved archaeological treasures set the scene for a truly electric escape. Dive into endless action like golf, horseback riding, ATV jungle tours, scuba diving, snorkeling, jet-skiing, kayaking, sport fishing, and sailing.

If you prefer a more remote setting, tiny Isla Mujeres (Island of Women) is only a short boat ride away, its balmy and laid-back setting perfect for water sports or just stretching out on its soft white sands.

CANCUN: SIGHTSEEING

ATV Tour

Half-Day

Cruise across the turquoise Caribbean to one of Isla Mujeres' most beautiful beaches. Once on the island, snorkel, ride a bike, visit a turtle farm, or simply lay back and work on your tan. There is also time to wander downtown and shop for souvenirs before boarding the boat back to Cancun. Trips via catamaran are also available.

Xplor Beyond the Surface Tour

8 Hours

Step into a unique underground world and discover a hidden universe below the Earth's surface. Swim through the mysterious routes, surrounded by amazing stalactites and stalagmites; cross the jungle, water, rocks, and grottos on a two-seated amphibious vehicle; paddle an underground raft over crystal-clear waters, and fly over two miles of airborne adventure on a zip-line. Riviera Maya Experiences:

- Buy fresh catch directly from fishermen at the pier in Puerto Morelos, a quiet place with a bohemian flair.
- Shop for souvenirs at local handicraft shops in the charming fishing village of Puerto Morelos.
- Go after white and blue marlin, blackfin, skipjack, and other sport fish on a charter out of Puerto Aventuras.
- Perfect your tan on Akumal's sun-kissed silky white sands.
- Take a guided tour of the Sian Ka'an Biosphere Reserve, a virgin wilderness that covers a stunning one-fifth of the state of Quintana Roo.
- Swim in underground rivers, stroll along jungle trails, explore mysterious caves, and watch vibrant pre-Hispanic dances at Xcaret Park.
- Drive the fairways on golf courses created by Jack Nicklaus, P.B. Dye, Greg Norman, Nick Price, Robert von Hagge, and Robert Trent Jones II.

An unspoiled, uncrowded setting lined with white-sand, palm-fringed beaches.

Just a few miles south of Cancún, the unspoiled area known as the Riviera Maya is an ideal base for exploring the authentic Mexico of Mayan ruins, sparkling cenotes, and some of the best beaches on the planet. There are also numerous modern resorts along the coastline, great shopping and nightlife, championship golf, and water sports galore.

Stroll along lively La Quinta Avenida (5th Avenue), Playa del Carmen's main drag, dotted with chic galleries, artisan boutiques, bustling cantinas, and eclectic eateries. Then walk in the steps of ancient civilizations at Coba, site of the tallest Mayan pyramids in the Yucatán, and at Tulum's picturesque seaside ruins that make up the only Mayan port ever discovered.

RIVIERA MAYA: SIGHTSEEING

Golf Robert Von Hagge Course

4 Hours

Experience this amazing 9- and 18-hole golf course, highlighted by the radiant white sand, dark natural stone, and pristine lakes that makes the Mayan jungle such an extraordinary natural landscape. This course is a garden of delights for golf lovers. Also available from Cancun.

Dolphins Royal Swim

1 Hour

This excursion invites you to experience the action and feel the emotion of swimming with dolphins in the ocean. Feel the thrill of dolphins pulling or pushing you by the bottoms of your feet. You will also learn all about them, including how they eat, sleep, and communicate. The entire experience takes place in a very quiet, comfortable, and calm seawater environment.

Chichén Itzá Tour

Full Day

Dedicated to the worship of Kukulcan, the feathered serpent god, Chichen Itza was the most important civic and religious center of the Mayans and was known also as the capital of the Mayan Empire. This was also the destination of pilgrims from all regions of Mesoamerica and the object of numerous studies of solar and astronomical symbolism. This tour is an adventure full of mystical myths, charm and fascination.

Coba Mayan Encounter

Full Day

Experience the richness of the Mayan world. Explore the ruins of Coba and climb Chimuch, the tallest pyramid in the northern part of the Yucatán Peninsula. Visit a Mayan village and participate in the preservation of their cultural and natural heritage. Soar on a zip-line above the jungle and make a thrilling rappel before paddling on a lagoon of enormous beauty. Finish the day by swimming in the transparency of age-old cenotes.

Deep Sea Fishing

4-6-8 Hours

Enjoy bottom fishing and trolling on boats fully equipped with a professional crew. You can catch and release, take a trophy back home, or even have the crew filet your catch of the day for you. Bait, your fishing license, and beer and soft drinks are included. Also available from Cancun.

Mayan Adventure

8 Hours

This tour is the perfect choice for first-time snorkelers, who will have an excellent opportunity to learn the basics, while the adventurous can try cliff jumping or free-diving to the bottom of a well. Snorkel an underground cavern and admire hundreds of ancient rock formations, including stalactites and stalagmites, as well as an entire world that lives and thrives without sunlight.

Riviera Maya Sailing

4 Hours

Sail away on a luxury 65-foot catamaran through crystalline Caribbean waters, and set anchor at the world's second largest barrier reef, where you explore the underwater world with professional snorkel guides. Spot corals and exotic fish, or stretch out on deck and get a nice suntan. Enjoy a buffet lunch with grilled lobster or steak, plus tropical drinks from a full open bar. There's also great music and dancing.

Tulum & Xel-Ha (All-Inclusive)

At Xel-Ha, spend a day of adventure enjoying natural, ecological, and aquatic attractions. Explore inlets, coves, cenotes, and mangroves, and sail along the lazy river on inner tubes. Enjoy lunch with an open bar, and swim in one of the largest natural aquariums in the world.

Cozumel Experiences:

- For striking views, climb the narrow winding stairs of the Punta Celerain Lighthouse.

- Take a cooking class and learn how to make regional Yucatecan delights as well as other Mexican dishes.
- Step into a Mayan steam lodge (or temazcal) for an hour, then cool off in a freshwater cenote, a deep, water-filled sinkhole formed by water percolating through the soft limestone terrain located above an underground network of caves and rivers.
- Hit a nightclub along San Miguel's Avenida Rafael Melgar and sway your hips to Caribbean rhythms.

Modern resorts, gracious and friendly people, and stunning natural beauty.

Cozumel famously caught the attention of underwater explorer Jacques Cousteau in the 1960s. Since then, the small island off the coast of the Riviera Maya has been hailed the world over as a top scuba diving destination, with the planet's second largest coral reef just offshore. Deep-sea fishing, snorkeling, and water-skiing are also popular, and resorts and recreational facilities are well equipped.

Back on terra firma, enjoy the easygoing atmosphere of this friendly island, beginning with the gorgeous white-sand beaches. Take advantage of Cozumel's duty-free shopping and look in San Miguel for great deals at jewelry stores selling beautifully crafted pieces made of .925 Mexican sterling silver.

Huatulco Bay

HUATULCO

Approximate Flight Times:

New York/Newark	5 Hours
Philadelphia	5 Hours
Boston	5½ Hours
Miami	3 Hours
Los Angeles	4½ Hours

Huatulco Experiences:

- Sit down for a sip of mezcal, Huatulco's version of tequila, made from the maguey plant.
- Join a tour that takes you to picturesque mountain waterfalls as well as some of the local coffee plantations.
- Go deep sea fishing for sailfish, black and blue Marlin, Dorado, and Yellowfin tuna.
- Visit the Museum of Oaxacan Art and watch a master artisan weave a brilliant tapestry – which you can also purchase.
- Spot florescent damsel fish, spiny black sea urchins, and eels ducking through the crevasses of the coral reef on a snorkeling excursion.
- Visit a recently discovered archaeological site that dates back 2,000 years at Copalita Eco-Archaeological Park.

Nine bays. Thirty-six beaches. One hot new resort destination.

A gleaming gem on Mexico's southern Pacific Coast, Huatulco was little known except as a coffee-growing area until resort development began in the 1980s. Now the world is discovering a destination that's deep in natural beauty that goes beyond its white-sand beaches and verdant Sierra Madre mountains – an authentic, untouched Mexico.

About 330 days a year of glorious sunshine will lead you directly to the 22 miles of beaches with calm waters that are ideal for swimming, kayaking, horseback riding, snorkeling, and scuba diving. Ultimate sun worshipping is found at Playa Zipolite, Mexico's first and only legal nude beach.

A growing selection of luxury hotels and resorts are mostly situated on Tangolunda Bay, while Huatulco's downtown zone, La Crucecita, is lined with shops and restaurants. Outside of town, you can join a tour to some of the many coffee plantations that thrive in the mountains nearby.

Ixtapa, Zihuatanejo

IXTAPA / ZIHUATANEJO

Approximate Flight Times:

New York/Newark	6 Hours
Philadelphia	6 Hours
Boston	6½ Hours
Miami	4½ Hours
Los Angeles	4½ Hours

Ixtapa/Zihuatanejo Experiences:

- Go scuba diving among coral reefs, underwater canyons, shoals, and sunken ships.
- Visit the Museo de Arqueología de la Costa Grande for its impressive collection of artifacts from pre-Hispanic times.
- Stop at a typical Zihua café for aporraddillo, a local dish made from cured beef, eggs, and Mexican salsa.
- Take a ferry to beautiful, sandy Isla Ixtapa, where a small lighthouse offers spectacular Pacific views.
- Dance until sunrise at the pulsating discotheques around Ixtapa's boulevard area.
- Venture to the beaches of Playa del Palmar and Playa Quieta for water sports, including unparalleled surfing.
- Wander the Mercado de Artesanía Turístico for terrific buys in jewelry, beads, silver, handicrafts, and hammocks.

Side-by-side on the Pacific Coast, a modern seaside resort and a sleepy former fishing village.

Modern, amenity-filled resort destination? Charming seaside village? When you visit Ixtapa/Zihuatanejo, you get both. Although carved from the same tropical coastline and marked by verdant hills and scalloped coves, these Costa Grande neighbors offer contrasting versions of Mexico – some even call it “the one place that’s two places at once.”

Unpretentious Zihuatanejo is tailor-made for sunny days full of fishing, sailing, scuba diving, snorkeling, biking, surfing, water-skiing, horseback riding – or just snoozing under a shady palm tree along the malecón.

Sophisticated pleasures and world-class accommodations are the hallmark of dynamic Ixtapa. There’s great nightlife, shopping, and restaurants, while championship golf, tennis, deep-sea fishing, and water sports offer diversions for every taste.

IXTAPA • ZIHUATANEJO: SIGHTSEEING

Combo Tour

5 Hours / Emark Group S.A De C.V

This is a great opportunity to get three tours in one: the City Tour, the Customs and Traditions Tour, and the Countryside Tour. First, explore Zihuatanejo's main streets, then visit a tropical fruit plantation and tile makers in the town of Coacoyul. Continue on to the picturesque town of Petatlán, famous for its beautiful beaches. On the way back, enjoy lunch in a Mexican roadside restaurant. An open bar and snacks are included.

Countryside & Barra De Potosi

7 Hours / Emark Group S.A De C.V

This 3-in-1 tour invites you to discover the beautiful tropical paradise of Ixtapa, from picturesque Zihuatanejo to modern Ixtapa. Then, immerse yourself in the culture and customs of Mexico at Zihuatanejo's archeological museum, as well as the picturesque town of Petatlán. Next, visit fruit plantations, the small town of Coacuyul, and local roof tile and brick makers, followed by the tranquil fishing village of Barra de Potosi for lunch.

Horseback Riding

1.5 Hours / Emark Group S.A De C.V

Take a pleasant ride on horseback along the beach and through coconut and fruit plantations on this trip. You'll be given a gentle and tame horse from Playa Larga Ranch to ride, and also be escorted by an expert and bilingual Mexican cowboy.

Ixtapa Treasure Island

6 Hours / Emark Group S.A De C.V

Explore one of the best and most beautiful places for snorkeling. Take a short boat ride from Playa Linda to Ixtapa Island. Relax, enjoy the beach, or explore the different points of the island, such as Coral Beach, where you can swim safely or snorkel. Take a swim around tranquil Varadero Beach, enjoy water sports such as kayaking, banana boats, and WaveRunners, or simply soak up the sun. A traditional Mexican lunch and drink are included.

Las Gatas Beach Break

6 Hours / Emark Group S.A De C.V

This tour is a truly relaxing experience in paradise. From Zihuatanejo's downtown, take a short boat ride from the municipal dock across the bay to Las Gatas Beach. Enjoy sunbathing, snorkeling, and swimming. Take part in water sports or just relax in this beautiful paradise. A traditional Mexican lunch with fish or chicken plus a drink is included.

Magical Sunset Cruise

3 Hours / Emark Group S.A De C.V

This is the best way to enjoy the sunset over the coast of the Pacific Ocean: Take a beautiful, romantic trip around the Bay of Zihuatanejo on board a sailboat, and appreciate the spectacular views of the green landscapes and the hotel zone of Ixtapa and Zihuatanejo. Keep your eyes open to see the famous "Ola Verde" or "green flash," and enjoy an open bar and snacks.

Sail & Snorkel Adventure

6 Hours / Emark Group S.A De C.V

This tour will take you to sail the blue Pacific waters from Puerto Mió in Zihuatanejo Bay to the secluded white-sand beach and coral reef of Manzanillo Beach. Here, you can snorkel, swim, and collect shells, or simply relax in this beautiful paradise. An open bar and snacks are included.

Special Deep Sea Fishing

7 Hours / Emark Group S.A De C.V

Hop on board for a day tour you won't forget. Depart with your captain and his crew of expert sailors on the surrounding waters. Be a fisherman for the day while trying to catch marlin, sailfish, mahi-mahi, and yellowfin tuna. Beer and soft drinks are included.

Swim with the Dolphins

1 Hour / Emark Group S.A De C.V

This awe-inspiring experience gives you a chance to get up-close-and-personal with dolphins like you've never imagined. You can pet them as they swim around you. These people-loving mammals enjoy the company so much that they will even let you reach for a hug, and you might just get a tender kiss in return. You'll then take an exciting ride at full speed on the dolphin's belly as you hold on tightly to the dolphin's pectoral fins.

Now, it's also famous as Latin America's premier golf destination, home to some particularly beautiful championship courses, and a mecca for sport fishing.

Take a boat ride to El Arco, a dramatic rock formation at Land's End, where you can view the continent's most spectacular sunsets. Tee off in a golfing paradise on picturesque and challenging layouts created by Jack Nicklaus, Robert Trent Jones, Jr., Greg Norman, Tom Fazio, Tom Weiskopf, Gary Player, and Tiger Woods.

- Indulge in snorkeling, boogie boarding, and parasailing at Playa Camaron, Gaviotas, Sabalo, and Brujas.

Lively Mazatlán thrives with family fun, thrilling water sports, great dining and nightlife, and some of the hemisphere's best beaches.

The largest city along Mexico's Gold Coast, Mazatlán has quietly become one of the most popular destinations in the country, offering miles of golden-sand beaches, world-class golfing, outstanding seafood, and numerous daytime and nighttime diversions.

The Zona Dorada is a major tourist area with some of the city's best hotels, shops, and restaurants. It is separated from the port by a long stretch of undeveloped beach, allowing the tourism attractions and the charm of a working Mexican city to coexist nicely.

Along the resort areas, open-air bistros and bars line the active yet uncrowded beaches. The rolling surf is akin to that in Southern California, making water sports, sunbathing, and parasailing favorite pastimes.
